

THE GLOBAL CONTEXT OF THE GREEK REVOLUTION: WOMEN AS AGENTS OF CHANGE

PROGRAM

18.30-19.00

Intro – overview: Professor Irene Kamberidou, webinar moderator

Official opening - welcoming address:

- Professor Konstantinos Karteroliotis, Dean of the School of Physical Education and Sport Science (SPESS) of the National and Kapodistrian University of Athens (NKUA)
- Professor Nikolaos Patsantaras Director of the Theoretical and Social Studies Department at the SPESS of the National and Kapodistrian University of Athens (NKUA).

Featured speakers:

19.00-19.20

Professor Katerina Lagos, Director and Coordinator of the Hellenic Studies Program, Department of History, California State University Sacramento (CSUS) California: “The Global Context of the Greek Revolution”, 19.20-19.40

Professor Irene Kamberidou, Director of the Sociology Studies Lab at the SPESS (NKUA): “Les Hellenes through the eyes of women travelers of the 17th, 18th and 19th centuries”

19.40-20.00

Asst. Professor Vaso Seirinidou, Department of History and Archaeology, at the School of Philosophy (NKUA): Dealing with violence in revolutionary Greece.

20.00-20.30

Questions, discussion, collaboration proposals

Closing remarks

Live streaming –YouTube: <https://youtu.be/1p19Px3Nb6w> and/or Webex: <https://uoa.webex.com/uoa/j.php?MTID=m24e4f0812891c79ca2e163213aedb3d4>
